Reliance acsn support freedom of association and collective bargaining as part of our commitment to support the fair and equitable treatment of workplace workers.

As stated in our Human Rights Policy, Reliance acsn support the United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights, which includes freedom of association and collective bargaining.

Because workers around the world face such diverse challenges, depending on their location and circumstances, Reliance acsn use a wide range of approaches to ensure their rights are respected. One way in which we do this is to support open and productive dialogue between workplace workers and managers. We seek to help bridge this divide while ensuring that freedom of association is respected both in principle and in practice.
